

THIS TIME Chappel didn't make it. Gary Chappel, No. 10, an Evergreen Park halfback who crossed the Lincoln-Way goal line three times in the course of the afternoon, was nailed on this attempt by his opposite number, Craig Cieply, of the Knights. The score was Evergreen 14, Lincoln-Way 12 until late in the final quarter when Chappel cut loose for 22 yards and a touchdown. The kick was unsuccessful and the final score was Evergreen 20, Lincoln-Way 12.

JEFF URBAN'S (NO. 40) gain for Lincoln-Way was stopped by Dick Rash (No. 64) and coming up to make sure the Knight was halted are Ben Lenderlin (No. 22) and Bob Wiedman (No. 43). The two Lincoln-Way players at the left are John Tromp (No. 80) and Howard Griemes (No. 86).

HOMEcoming QUEEN at Lincoln-Way this year was Cheryl Wilson, a senior from Mokena. Homecoming festivities are as much a part of the football scene in America as a pumpkin pie for Thanksgiving but it is all new to the young man at the right, Lars Lindholm, who is attending Lincoln-Way this year as an exchange student from Sweden. LW Speech Dept. Will Hold Open House Tuesday

Lincoln-Way high school speech activities will get underway next Tuesday night (Oct. 22) with an "open house" for all parents of speech students. The program will begin at 7:30 p.m. in the auditorium with two dramatic presentations by the Drama club and the acting class. Visitors will have an opportunity to witness other areas of speech activities including original oration, extemporaneous speaking, verse reading, prose reading, humorous monolog, serious reading, comedy reading, oratorical declamation, radio speaking, and after-dinner speaking. The Lincoln-Way debate team will also argue the question of federal aid for medical care for the aged.

This year marks the reorganization of Lincoln-Way's speech activities program. With the appointment of David Schuelke as director of speech activities and the addition of Mrs. Edith Olmstead as individual events coach, the co-curricular program in speech is designed to give all students an opportunity to compete interscholastically in speech contests. M.D. McClain is the faculty director of the Drama club and the all-school play; Mrs. Betty Morrison is advisor to the Thespians, director of the acting class and contest play, and coaches serious and comedy reading. Dallas Mucci is returning as varsity Debate Coach and extemporaneous speaking coach, and Mrs. Olmstead and Mr. Schuelke will also direct individual contest speech events.

Returning seniors Terrie Hearn, Gary Stokes, Jim Gorman, and Michelle Chuck will lead the Lincoln-Way speech team in interscholastic competition this year. Among the competitions in which Lincoln-Way will participate are: Illinois State university tourney at Normal, Nov. 22 and 23; Rich East Invitational, Dec. 14;

Homewood - Flossmoor, individual events tournament, Jan. 11; and the Southwest Suburban conference tournament at Evergreen Park, Feb. 1 and 8. Lincoln-Way will be host to the Illinois High School Association district speech contest Feb. 15, and will be trying to place for competition in the sectional and state competition.

Classmates Wish Sandy Good Luck

A surprise party was given 9-year-old Sandy Gilkison by her classmates in the fourth grade at Willow Crest school of Mokena Monday. She entered Silver Cross hospital this week to undergo extensive bone surgery and while there will receive bedside teaching so she will be able to keep up with her class. Arrangements for the party were made by Sandy's teacher, Mrs. Minnie Pester, assisted by Mrs. Robert Homerding, Candy and cupcakes decorated with the inscription, "Good Luck," were served and Sandy received several gifts.

Homecoming Jinx Holds--Knights Lose, 20-12

BY GREG FANT

Once again the jinx that has marked all the Homecoming games at Lincoln-Way reared its ugly head last Saturday and the Knights varsity football squad met defeat at the hands of Evergreen Park, 20 to 12.

Lincoln-Way and the Parkers were tied in the Southwest Suburban conference standings with three losses each.

Gary Chappel, a fleet halfback for the visitors, accounted for all of his team's touchdowns. In the first quarter Chappel shook loose to gallop 23 yards to cross the goal line. Bill Wendling booted the extra point and the score was Evergreen 7, Lincoln-Way 0.

Then in the second quarter after the Parkers had pounded their way down the field, Chappel slipped over again, this time from three yards out. Again Wendling kicked the extra point and the score was Evergreen Park 14, Lincoln-Way 0.

The Knights never came close in the first half.

The third quarter was played with neither team scoring. Then in the final frame Lincoln-Way got a break. Evergreen Park fumbled on their own 23-yard line and Earl Montgomery grabbed the ball for the Knights and legged it over for the touchdown. DeLay tried to run the extra point but was hauled down.

After an exchange of punts Lincoln-Way got going again and drove 63 yards. Howard Grimes, switched from end to quarterback, slid over from the three. The attempt for the extra point again failed.

With less than four minutes remaining in the game Ron Kokal recovered a Mustang fumble but the Knights failed to make a first down after three running plays and an attempted pass. The Mustangs then took over and with the aid of a penalty went 47 yards to score, Chappel breaking loose up the middle for the final 22 yards.

Evergreen Park made 139 yards on the ground and 20 by air. The Knights gained 49 yards by rushing and 11 yards passing. The Mustangs were penalized 60 yards, the Knights 51 yards.

The visitors made it a triple victory. The visiting sophomores won 32 to 2 and the freshmen, 14 to 0. The sophomore Knights made their two points when Dave Cooper tackled Frank Cunningham in the Evergreen end zone.

Tomorrow night the Knights will play under lights at Reavis. The first game is slated for 6:30 and the varsity contest at 8 o'clock. Lincoln-Way is hopeful that it may break the ice against Reavis.

Sandburg and Rich East won their games last week-end and are tied for the league leadership with four victories each and no defeats in conference play.

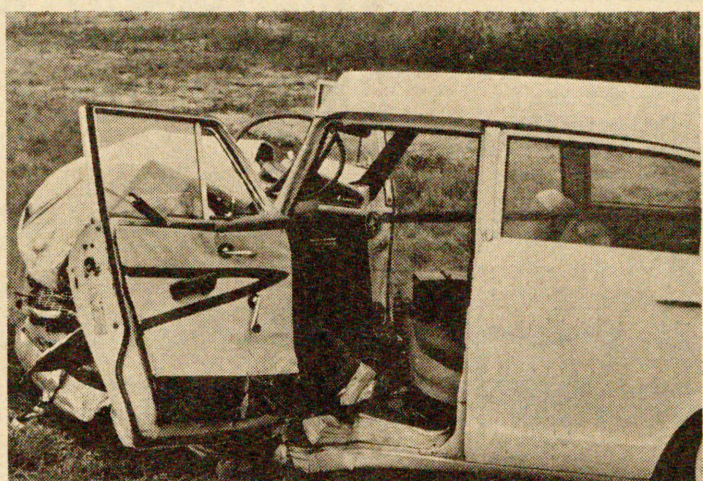

Score by quarters:
Knights 0 0 0 12 -12
Mustangs 7 7 0 6 -20

2 Die From Crash On U.S. 6 Near 178th St.

Two men were fatally injured and a third hospitalized as a result of a two-car collision last Friday morning on U.S. 6 at 178th street, which is inside the Cook county line.

The two men died after reaching Silver Cross hospital, Joliet and thus became the 41st and 42nd fatalities in Will county since Jan. 1.

The victims were, Clarence E. Sorensen, 56, of 214 N. Hickory st., Joliet, a lather, and Delmar K. Mosley, 47, Rt. 1, Wilmington.

The two were enroute to work at Chicago about 7:30 Friday morning when the car, driven by Sorensen, was reported struck head-on by a west bound car driven by Jonathan Howard, 111 Patterson road, Howard also was taken to Silver Cross hospital, State police from Dist. 4 covered the accident. A call was made to Tinley Park, for ambulances and an inhalator and a tow truck was summoned from Oak Forest.

Because the two men fatally injured died in Will county the inquest will be held there by Coroner Willard G. Blood.

Heights Firm Low Bidder On Tinley Hospital Unit

(CNS) - A $533,901 contract for general work on a patient residential unit at Tinley Park state hospital was awarded this week.

All the contracts were awarded in the state wide mental health building program.

WINNING ENTRY in the International poppy contest held annually by the national American Legion Woman's Auxiliary was submitted by the auxiliary of Bobzin-Swinford post, Frankfort. The entry took first prize, which was a check for $25 that the Frankfort auxiliary will put to use in its program for hospitalized veterans. The display was submitted by Mrs. Lloyd Luhring, (left) a charter member of the unit, and her co-chairman, Mrs. Harold Schiffer (right), an eight-year member. This same display, which shows a cross and a bible covered with poppies and flanked by the Star of David, won first place in Class A at the Illinois state convention of the Legion Auxiliary last August. The check was presented to the Frankfort auxiliary by Mrs. Clarence Sandberg, of Joliet, past director of the 11th district. (Robert Porter photo)

Hold Funeral For Minnie Bisping

Funeral services were held yesterday for Mrs. Minnie Bisping, 83 years old, of Frankfort, who died Monday, Oct. 14, at Silver Cross hospital, Joliet, following a brief illness.

Born in Green Garden township, the former Minnie Topper, Mrs. Bisping resided there and in the Frankfort area all of her life. She was married to Harry Bisping in 1902. He preceded her in death as did five brothers and one sister.

Surviving are a brother, August Topper, a sister-in-law, Mrs. Charles Topper, of Peotone, and a nephew, Carl Topper, of Monee. Removal was to the Rambo funeral home at Monee, from where she was taken to St. Peter's United Church of Christ at Frankfort for services at 2 o'clock Wednesday with the Rev. LaVern Smith officiating. Interment was in Monee cemetery.

Lutheran Women Plan Annual Yultide Bazaar

Halloween is in the offing, yet the women of Immanuel Lutheran church, Mokena, have plans in motion for their annual Christmas bazaar. They will hold the bazaar in the church basement, 19544 Union ave., Oct. 29th and 30th. The first day the hours will be from 7 to 9 p.m. The following day the sale will begin at 9 a.m. and will close at 2 p.m. A luncheon will be served from 10:30 to 1:00 on Oct. 30.

A large variety of articles will be on sale. A children's booth which will feature hand-drawn pictures, model airplanes, Barbie doll clothes, etc., will be manned by Mrs. Arthur Hostert. Mrs. Melvin Moutrey reports she will have many fine items in the fancy work booth including fancy and practical aprons. "Surprise in every package" will be the motto of Mrs. Irvin Holm as she conducts the surprise booth. Baked goods, home canned goods, fresh produce and eggs, and house plants will be available in the Country Store booth conducted by Mrs. Franklin Weber.

Colorful rag rugs will again be on sale reports Mrs. Harry Yunker.

For those who like to do their Christmas shopping early, Mrs. Bueltmann promises a wide selection of religious items, Christmas decorations and candles.

For those who are looking for a special something in the gift line they will find exactly that when they stop and shop at the booth prepared by Mrs. Emily Miller and her committee.

The committee serving the luncheon is composed of Mrs. Harry Phil, chairman, Mrs. Clyde Yunker and Mrs. Raymond Bernard.

In charge of this year's fund raising is Mrs. Lloyd Klein and Mrs. Robert Niemann.

The public is invited to the bazaar and luncheon.

Second Dose Of Polio Vaccine Due On Sunday

The second phase of a three-dose mass immunization against polio conducted by Hazel Crest General hospital will take place Sunday, Oct. 20. Type II Sabin oral vaccine will be administered at the hospital, 171st street and Dixie Highway, Hazel Crest.

Thursday, October 17, 1963

The drive will again be conducted on a drive-in basis, with vaccine - impregnated sugar cubes handed thru car windows, without families even having to get out of their cars.

Paul H. Webster, hospital administrator, said that all three types of Sabin vaccine are required for complete immunization in most persons. South suburban families may begin their program with Type II on Sunday and return to the hospital for Type I during special make-up sessions after Jan. 1, Webster said.

Type III, which is given mainly to persons under 30, will be offered at the hospital Sunday, Dec. 1. Upon completion of the program, recipients will be mailed a vaccination certificate for medical and school records.

The program was initiated Sept. 8, when the hospital medical staff and 49 volunteers dispensed more than 10,000 doses. Hospital officials said that most families were served within five minutes.

Doctors will again be on hand to answer questions about the vaccine. The doctors in charge of the Sept. 8 drive said the most common question was "If we already have been inoculated with Salk vaccine, should we take the Sabin series?" The answer is "yes" since the Sabin oral vaccine offers a different and more effective immunization.

Other hospitals and community service organizations in the South suburban area are planning Sabin drives, but Webster claims the first drive-in vaccine dispensary in the Chicago area, possibly in the entire Midwest.

Drivers should enter the vaccination line on 171st street between Wood and Dixie highways, Webster said. Cars will then be directed into the Hospital drive-way by Hazel Crest traffic officers.

The board also took under consideration condemnation proceedings for the acquisition for a land sewage disposal plant on Thorn creek in Thornton twp.

Farmers' Outlook Letter

BY: L. H. SIMERL
U. OF I. AG EXTENSION

Every year at this time soybean producers try to decide whether it will pay them to hold soybeans. There is more than usual interest in this question this year, so we will list some facts about the soybean market.

According to Professor T.A. Hieronymus of our staff, the demand for soybeans is increasing about five percent a year. Soybean production, however, does not increase steadily, but by irregular steps. Consequently we sometimes have more beans than we use, and in other years we could use more than we have.

In the marketing year ending with September we used practically the entire supply of soybeans, and we may do so again in the coming year. If it appears that a shortage will develop before the 1964 harvest begins, prices will rise substantially. If prices rise too early, utilization will be reduced and prices will decline later in the marketing year.

In the short run, prices for soybeans can increase moderately with only a small loss of markets. But in the long run there are many substitutes which would replace soybeans and soybean products. This is apparent from a study of the uses made of our soybean crop. In the 1962-63 marketing year we used and exported close to 700 million bushels of soybeans. Of this amount 68 percent was crushed in this country, 26 percent was exported and 6 percent was used on farms, mostly for seed.

A bushel of soybeans yields about 10.7 pounds of oil and 47 pounds of meal. The oil is used mostly for shortening, margarine and salad and cooking oils. The meal is used mostly as a high-protein feed for livestock and poultry.

Soybean oil is selling for about 8 cents a pound, making the oil from a bushel of beans worth 86 cents. Soybean meal at Decatur mills for delivery in October is selling at around $74 a ton, or 3.7 cents a pound. This makes the meal from a bushel of beans worth $1.74. The meal and oil together are worth $2.60.

This $2.60 is what is available for paying all processing costs (including labor, interest, depreciation, fuel, power, etc.), freight to the mill, local elevator expenses - and the farmer. A nearby elevator is offering $2.49 to the farmer.

Soybean oil sells in competition with many other fats and oils. These include cottonseed oil, lard, beef fat, corn oil, safflower oil, peanut oil, olive oil and butter. If the price of soybeans oil rises, manufacturers use larger amounts of the competing fats and oil and less soybean oil. Reserve, or surplus, stocks of soybeans oil are estimated at 925 million pounds.

Soybeans meal is the principal high-protein feed available to farmers. If the price of soybeans rises, most of the increase will be passed on to farmers in the form of higher prices for soybean meal and mixed feeds. A rise of 25 cents a bushel for soybeans might raise the cost of soybean meal about 15 percent.

Equinoxes Tell Dates As Well As The Seasons

Summer came to an end and autumn began in the northern hemisphere of the earth on Monday, September 23, at 1:24 p.m. C.D.T. at that time the sun was exactly at the intersection of two imaginary circles in the sky, the celestial equator and the ecliptic. The celestial equator is the projection of the terrestrial equator into the sky; the ecliptic is the sun's apparent annual path thru the background of fixed stars. As the earth revolves around the sun, allowing us to look at the sun from a different point in space each day, the sun appears to move eastward among the apparently fixed stars.

The sun's path crosses the celestial equator twice each year and these intersections are called the "equinoxes"; when the sun is at either the vernal or autumnal equinox our day and night are equal in length. Our autumn season begins when the sun crosses the celestial equator moving southward; spring then begins in the southern hemisphere.

Noting the time of the equinoxes is important for more reasons than determining the passage of the seasons, explained Robert I. Johnson planetarium director at the Chicago Park District Adler Planetarium and Astronomical Museum. By determining the position of the equinoxes, in relation to the background of stars one can establish the date of many of the antique instruments in the Chicago Park District's Museum collection; in this outstanding collection are several celestial spheres or star globes dating back to the 16th century.

To determine the date of construction of these instruments from design or workmanship is not always possible; but by noting the positions of the equinoxes the year can be calculated.

Hints For Homeowners

BY: JAMES FIZZELL
ASSOCIATE FARM ADVISER

season so you should apply water artificially where necessary.

Dig Gladiolus corms as the tops die back or before the ground freezes solid. Let them air-dry on the soil surface for several hours and complete drying in a shady, well-ventilated area. Dust lightly with 5 percent DDT and store in paper bags in a cool dry place. Protect from freezing.

Dahlias should be dug before a hard freeze. Trim the tops, but be careful not to break off the dormant buds at the base of the stems. Store the root clumps in a perforated plastic bag to prevent excessive drying. Store at a temperature of about 40 to 50 degrees F.

Cut off the stems of peony bushes at the soil line after the plants become dormant. After the ground freezes, a light organic mulch will prevent alternate freezing and thawing.

After the first severe frost, protect tender bush roses with a mound of soil about one foot high. After the ground freezes, cover the mound with a mulch of crushed corn cobs, sawdust or other mulching material. To keep bush roses from being whipped by wind, cut them down to a height of 15 to 18 inches.

Remove climbing roses from the trellis, lay them on the ground and cover with soil. They too can use a mulch.

Remember to mark all garden plants with an appropriate label to keep them from being lost next spring during the clean up rush.

Rabbits can cause serious damage to trees and shrubs by nipping off shoots, branches, leaves and buds and by gnawing and peeling off bark. They feed on these materials, but often remove parts of trees and shrubs without eating them.

One rabbit can ruin a home planting during the winter. Damage is most likely to be severe when forage for rabbits is scarce, in late fall, and during winters when there is a deep snow cover. Wherever rabbits are numerous, protection against them is necessary in order to establish landscaping plantings.

There are several effective ways of protecting your plants from rabbits. The most common method is to place chicken wire fences around each plant. These fences should be larger in diameter than the spread of the lowest branches of the plants, and should be securely fastened to the ground. They should be high enough so that they will stick up over deep snow.

Chemical rabbit repellants are quite effective particularly on hedge material which is hard to protect with fencing. The commercial preparations are available at garden and hardware stores. Some can be used on evergreen plants and some cannot. Be sure to check the label before you use any of these materials.

The materials can be sprayed on the plants from a tank sprayer or painted on with a brush.

It is probably not necessary to treat all the plants in your yard, but plants, such as flowering plums, flowering almond, fruit trees and crabapple, which are particularly attractive to rabbits, should be protected.

Apply the repellent on a day when temperatures are well above freezing, and be sure to clean the sprayer thoroughly after using.

Offer Group Insurance Plan At High School

Unlike "the good ole' days" parents sending students to Lincoln-Way High School have the advantages of a comprehensive insurance coverage program. This privilege is possible because of extended group rate coverage made available by insurance companies.

Among other benefits the average student at Lincoln-Way is protected against accident medical expense for an amount up to $5,000. A maximum of $10,000 is allowed for accidental loss of sight or dismemberment and an accidental death benefit of $1,000 is also provided.

Financial hardship can be imposed on a family because of a long hospitalization as a result of an accident. And according to A. Hunter Chapman, Superintendent of Lincoln-Way High School, "Parents are urged to participate in the group insurance program we have at Lincoln-Way."

MOKENA FIREMEN conducted fire drills at Willow Crest and Carpenter street schools last week as a part of their observance of Fire Prevention Week and while at Willow Crest school staged a demonstration of extinguishing a gasoline fire. There was a wind switch just as the gas was lighted and the big cloud of black smoke went swirling over to envelope the photographer. He managed to find his way out, however, and got his eyes and lens clear of smoke to get this shot. The man in the white shirt is Mokena Fire Chief Robert Rust. (Graphic Newspapers photo)

MR. AND MRS. RICHARD JOHN ADAMS

Couple Exchange Vows At Mokena's St. Mary Church

Miss Judith Anne Marcec, formerly of Mokena, became the bride of Richard John Adams Aug. 24 at eleven o'clock in St. Mary's church, Mokena.

The Rev. Cecil Koop, O.F.M., officiated at the wedding service uniting the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Marcec, 20 Maplehurst Lane, Bound Brook, N.J., and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph J. Adams, 4214 Prairie ave., Brookfield, Ill.

Guest soloist was Miss Judith Kuchenbecker.

Escorted by her father to an altar enhanced by bouquets of 'mums and gladioli, the bride wore a peau de sole gown with scoop neckline appliqued with white flowers and sprinkled with seed pearls. Her veil was shoulder length of bouffant nylon illusion caught up by a white rose studded with white seed pearls. She carried three white glamelias surrounded with stephanotis.

Miss Lenice Colangelo attended as maid of honor. She wore a street length rose chiffon sheath with V shaped back having two rose colored chiffon roses at bottom of V with two trains of chiffon and wore a rose bouffant small head veil. She carried white snowdrift mums. Dressed identically with Lenice Colangelo were the bridesmaids, Miss Nancy Thorp and Carol Widmer.

Ken Zany attended as best man and ushers were John Roeschlein and Harry Marshall.

Mrs. Marcec, mother of the bride, wore a yellow satin sheath with matching accessories and a white cymbidium corsage. The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Adams, wore a aqua chiffon sheath, white lace hat and accessories and a white cymbidium corsage.

A reception followed in the Sabre room, Hickory Hills.

Following a trip to Canada the newlyweds are now residing at 512 West White st., Champaign, Ill. Both are still attending the University of Illinois.

"---and in This Corner!"

(INDUSTRIAL REVIEW)

If the Republican presidential nominating convention were to be held tomorrow, Senator Barry Goldwater of Arizona would be the party's candidate against President John F. Kennedy a year from next November.

That is the view of the great majority of political writers and pundits, whether or not they happen to personally agree with the Goldwater philosophy. And it is backed up by public opinion polls with excellent past performance records. In these polls, the Senator is significantly ahead of other possible candidates.

The Goldwater boom has been a dramatic one. Numbers of his followers are imbued with almost a Messiah-like zeal. Goldwater clubs have sprung up thruout the country. Goldwater stickers and buttons are seen in growing number. He seems to have a particularly strong following among the younger Republicans, which is a very great asset indeed. And this has happened even though he is not a formally announced candidate for anything except his Senate seat. He has taken it in stride, with modesty and good humor.

Senator Goldwater is a conservative, who has small use for most of the ideas of the liberal wing either in or out of his party. Yet he is a strong party man, who had charge of the campaign to elect Republican senators in '62 and labored loyally for all concerned including some with whom he is in profound disagreement. Moreover, he has gone to some length, particularly of late, to disassociate himself from the extreme conservative right wing. He has modified some of his positions - on taxation, certain government welfare activities, and other controversies. But he is the tireless and eloquent enemy of policies which, in his view, threaten to create a central governmental colossus, possessed of virtually limitless powers, at the expense of local and individual rights and responsibilities. The individual human being looms very large in his esteem. He doesn't think of people as statistics.

But the fact that the Senator now seems well ahead of any other Republican hopeful does not mean that this condition will obtain next summer, when the convention is held. A great deal of water can go under the bridge between now and then. Some Goldwater supporters feel that the drive to nominate him may have started too early - that it may run out of steam at the crucial time. In any event, a real fight looms. The anti-Goldwater forces are now gathering, in large part at least, behind Governor Rockefeller. The Governor, like the Senator, is not formally a candidate. But few doubt that he will make a run for the prize. And, like the Senator, the Governor has been clarifying his ideas on the big issues in speeches and interviews. His purpose is to avoid labels, either liberal or conservative, and to make it clear that his views aren't just a Republican version of the present Administration's. He has strongly emphasized his faith in private enterprise, in maintaining vigorous and responsible local government, in holding federal spending to the present level, and so on. Actually, there are a good many important areas in which he and Goldwater see pretty much eye to eye. But there are others where the differences are great, and it is this that will be stressed in the months ahead.

Meanwhile, there seems to have been an upsurge in GOP optimism so far as '64 is concerned. There is a feeling that Mr. Kennedy can be beaten; that he has lacked decisiveness and effectiveness, and that the electorate has been disappointed in him. Next year's election will show whether that feeling is right or wrong.

A COMMENTARY

The action of the Senate in approving the treaty banning nuclear tests in the atmosphere was, in its way, a grimly vivid commentary on the world we live in.

The favorable vote, 80 to 19, was much larger than the required two-thirds majority. But there was little exultation, little feeling that a really long step toward world peace had been taken. It is fair to say that most of those voting for the treaty, Democrats and Republicans alike, did so with reservations. And the President, in his eloquent message urging approval, made it clear that no millennium is to be expected.

Why, then, was this treaty approved, and without amendment? The answers are several. World opinion of peoples everywhere was certainly an element. So was the feeling that any measure of control over nuclear weapons is much better than none. An overriding consideration was that the admitted risks in the agreement will prove to be outweighed by possible gains. And, finally, a question of U.S. world prestige and leadership was at stake.

Beyond all this, the fact remains that the Soviets have violated solemn treaties directly, or by subterfuge. It is this that must be watched with infinite care in the present case, and the President has promised that it will be done. We, along with more than 100 other nations, now have the treaty and the hopes that go with it. Will they be fulfilled?

On ? Second Thot

By GLENN F. LOGAN

"The melancholy days are come..." run the words of William Cullen Bryant in a stanza of "The Death of the Flowers," and have been quoted ever since by detractors of the autumnal season.

Of course, it is the way one looks at it, and the way one feels about the seasons. All have their backers -- even winter.

Personally we like the fall. We like to see the leaves change into their cloaks of crimson and gold before they exit from the scene --- and while touching on that subject would suggest that those who take pleasure in witnessing the changing of the leaves make their pilgrimages now.

The leaves are putting on their glory robes but if we get rain most of them will be swept away. The wind has already taken toll and a couple of days of rain will finish them off except in isolated, protected areas.

For some the bare branches of trees present a bleak picture but it depends upon how you look at that too. The leafless trees open up new vistas of sky and landscape and anyway in only a short time they will be green again.

Thus far autumn has followed summer's pattern. There have been warm days, bright days with sunshine. Only the fact that the temperatures go down with the sun and the nights are cool with some fog of mornings indicate weatherwise that fall is here.

There are other signs of course, football --- falling leaves --- the revival of activities by clubs and service organizations --- bowling leagues in bloom again --- ads to change oil and put in antifreeze so cars will be ready for winter --- appearance of winter hats for the women (in the winter they wear the spring models) --- last calls to come and get tomatoes for canning or chilisauce --- falling leaves --- Christmas card salesmen --- appearances of recipes for Thanksgiving and Christmas menus --- falling leaves --- people with sore fingers from washing storm windows preparatory to putting them up when the screens are taken down.

Fellow at the next desk says that nowadays one doesn't have to take screens down in order to put storm windows up - you just shove and if your luck is in they go each into its proper place. But one still has to wash them and the question is whether it is easier to wash them when they are in or when they are out.

Raking those leaves can be a chore but if you have a bullet-proof house and wear a steel hat and a bullet-proof vest and don't care what opinion the neighbors have of you there is a gadget that makes clearing one's lawn of leaves a breeze. That's right, literally a breeze because it is wind that does the trick.

Saw one of them in operation at a cemetery. It's a contraption that looks something like a power lawnmower but it looses a blast of air that drives the leaves before it and no nonsense about it. A good operator herds the leaves in long windrows and rolls them along the ground to a designated spot where they are loaded into trucks and carted off to a dump or a place to be burned.

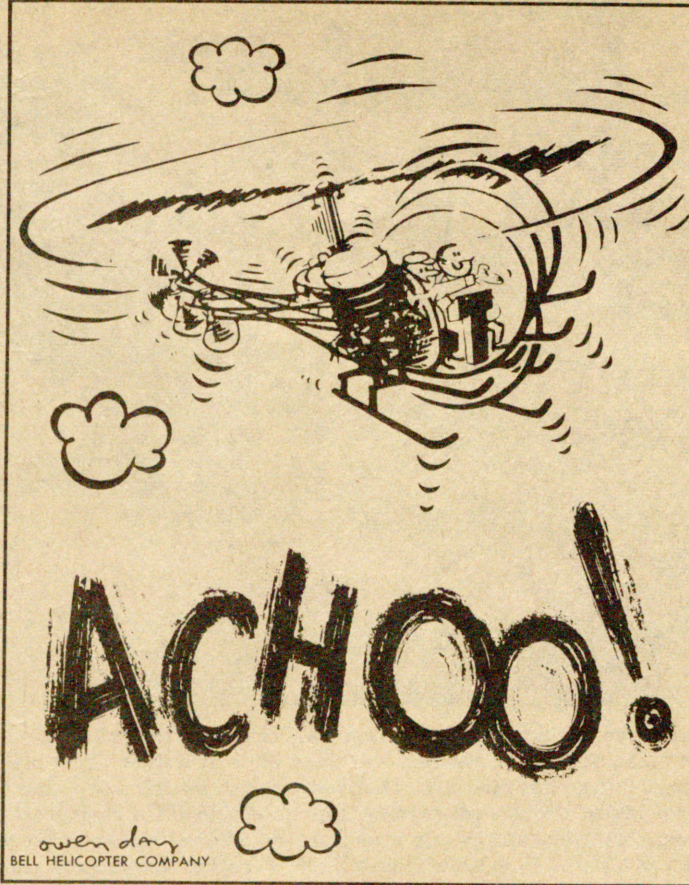

Beats raking or pushing one of those revolving brush gimmicks.

Of course, if one has patience and a bit of luck the wind will pretty well clear a yard in time.

The real melancholy days, in our book, do not arrive until the freezing rains. Snow we can take -- in moderate quantities.

RIGHT OR WRONG

Dear Sir:

Let us look at the facts about conservatives (often called the right-wing extremists) and compare these with those about the moderns, progressives and liberals (who are actually socialists).

The conservatives advocate the following -

A Constitutional government. A balanced budget, a realistic tax reduction and sound money. A private competitive market.

Local self government. Retention of the sovereignty of the United States.

titles. We think it is a fine thing and in keeping with the season to have snowflakes fluttering down on Christmas eve so that when morning comes the earth is sparkling white under a blanket -- but a thin blanket mind you -- of snow. But by noon of Christmas day we would not be unhappy to find the snow melted and the weatherman say, "Relax, folks, no more snow this season."

We know this is merely wishful thinking but if the snow doesn't get too deep we can take it. It is far, far better than the freezing rains that leave highways, streets and sidewalks treacherously slippery. And slaves to tradition that we are -- we people of the north are an energetic, busy people who work and go about our appointed tasks regardless of the elements -- we venture forth on icy walks and roads and as a result suffer body fractures -- human and auto.

Occasionally when one hears weather reports concerning snow and ice in the southern states he also hears people speculating as to how those in the south cope with such a situation, in view of the fact that they have little or no experience in driving under such conditions.

Well, folks, that is an easy question to answer. Those people in the south just stay put, wherever they are, until the darned stuff has disappeared from the highways.

Can't do that up here, tho. It just wouldn't do. Bad for business, very bad. One should always remember that if need be one should be ready to die for business.

Meanwhile the weather is pleasant. If we can just have a few more weeks of this and then a spot of Indian summer it will be a bit of all right. But did you read what the man said about the lake perch? He says they are pushing far off shore in the deep water which is said to mean that the coming winter will be long and tough. Darn those fish, anyway!

Freedom of speech which includes all news media.

Private ownership of property and individual liberty.

The liberals continuously practice the following -

Use of Presidential decrees thereby circumventing congress and the Constitution.

The juggling of figures to justify deficit spending which is under-mining the nation's solvency.

Industry is subsidized, regulated, taxed and must compete with the federal government.

Local and states rights are being usurped by a centralized government.

Our sovereignty as a nation is gradually being lost to the United Nations.

Thru the Marxist plan, the owner of property is actually paying rent in the form of taxes but cannot control the use or sale of this property.

The broadening of tax bases and changing tax rulings which constitute confiscatory taxation.

The alarming use of news censorship or deletion. Pressure is used to silence the "Voices of Conservatism".

The policies of our government are so contradictory. It is apparent that even the officials are absolutely confused.

Initiative and ambition have been paralyzed by welfare programs.

When due consideration and a sane evaluation, of these diametrically opposed policies, have been given them, what is your conclusion? Does freedom mean nothing to you? It would seem that there should be no doubt in your mind about which is the extremist group. Simple semantics would not allow the use of right and left to be used as a label, rather should be said, right and wrong.

Patriotically,
HENRY W. HICKS,
11301 W. 155th Street.

The Orland Youth Association is having its 1963 "Fun Nite" program Saturday night, Oct. 19, at Silver Lake Country club, and those in charge are hopeful of a capacity crowd. Donations expected are $1 a person and proceeds will be used by the organization in carrying on its activities.

Dancing will begin at 9 o'clock with music provided by Al Carver's orchestra.

Those in charge of arrangement have booked a couple of acts for entertainment. From Chicago's Shellers original pump room comes Tony Burica, a "sing-along guy." Also on the bill will be Jon Lautrec, a hypnotist, according to the billing who is said to have appeared for several weeks at the Brown Derby in Los Angeles.

Bob Grace will be master of ceremonies.

One of the features of Saturday night's program will be the free food to be served by members of the Fernway Woman's club.

POSTOFFICE HOURS

Dear Sir:

We have recently moved to Mokena and find it a very enjoyable community in which to live. However, there is one problem which confronts us daily, and therefore has become a nuisance. The problem to which I refer is the limited hours of the post office.

Both my wife and I work, and each of us leaves for work early in the morning and returns rather late in the afternoon. Often we arrive at the post office only to find that we cannot get our mail because the post office is closed. There have been weeks when the only day we could get our mail was Saturday. I am certain there are other families who, because the husband commutes and the wife must remain home with the children, find themselves in the same predicament.

In other communities in which we have lived it was the practice of the post office not to lock that area in which the boxes were located, so that boxholders could receive their mail 24 hours a day.

Since the Mokena post office is so arranged that the box area is separate from the business area, couldn't this practice also be carried out here?

Sincerely,
THOMAS OAKLAND

MR. AND MRS. JAMES ARTHUR BOHART

Sharon Mae Jochum Becomes Bride Of James A. Bohart

At a 7 o'clock candlelight ceremony the evening of Sept. 7 in the Tinley Park Methodist church, Miss Sharon Mae Jochum became the bride of James Arthur Bohart.

Rev. Ronald Russell, pastor of University Methodist church of DeKalb, and assisted by the Rev. Kenneth Crandall, pastor of Tinley Park Methodist church officiated at the double ring ceremony uniting the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Jochum, Tinley Park and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bohart, Rochelle, Ill.

Guest soloist, William Rush of Rockford was accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Carl P. Jochum of Blue Island.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride was lovely in a floor length peau de sole gown accented with lace and pearl tracing. A graceful train fell from midshoulder. An illusion french silk veil was caught to a small pearl crown. Her single strand of pearls was a gift of the groom. The bridal bouquet of white stephanotis and phalaenopsis orchids was arranged on white lace and pearl leaves.

Miss Lorelei Jochum attended her sister as maid of honor. She wore a gown of emerald green taffeta with matching blusher veil and shoes. Her bouquet of yellow mums, centered with rust pompoms was accented with natural wheat. Dressed identically with Miss Jochum were the bridesmaids, Miss Sally Schubert, Downers Grove and Mrs. Robert Neal, DeKalb. Their bouquets were yellow mums on a wheat sheaf. Their ensembles were highlighted with crystal jewelry, a gift from the bride.

Attending the groom were Robert Neal, best man and groomsmen, Jerry Grinolds and Steve Ellis. Ushers were Rex Wood, Ron Sampson, Curt Ketter and Michael Loeffgren.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Jochum selected a jacket-sheath gown in blue and green brocade with matching accessories. The bridegrooms mother, Mrs. Bohart, was gowned in peach brocade with black accessories. Both wore a green cypripedium orchid corsage.

Honored guests at the reception in the church parlors following the ceremony were grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Andres, Tinley Park, Mrs. J. L. Jochum, Blue Island and Mrs. Myrtle Burley, Rochelle. The guest list of 275 included out-of-town guests from Rockford, Freeport, Esmond, Round Lake, Waterman, Maple Park, Elgin, Winnebago, Compton, Oswego, Sterling, Ashton, Des Plaines, Lake Bluff, Lindewood, Matteson, Wheaton, Rochelle, DeKalb, Downers Grove, Blue Island, Chicago, Green Bay, Wisc., and Michigan City, Ind.

The buffet table was graced with twin candelabra and fresh flower arrangements and centered with a four-tier wedding cake which was served by Mrs. George Rowden and assisted by Mrs. Betsy Dunlap and Miss Cheryl Bohart, sisters of the groom.

An evening reception and smorgasbord was hosted at Cavallini's Restaurant, Midlothian, where members of the young set enjoyed dancing.

Mr. and Mrs. Bohart have returned to Northern Illinois university as seniors, majoring in music. Sharon is a member of Sigma Alpha Iota and James, a member of Phi Mu Alpha, national honorary music organizations. The Boharts will be directing the music for the University Methodist church on the campus.

Mr. and Mrs. Bohart are at home at 235 Normal Road, DeKalb, Ill.

Annual PTG Fun Fair Set
For Week End At School

Come One! Come All! Come to the second annual Fun Fair, sponsored by the Summit Hill Parent-Teacher Group. It is to be held this Saturday, Oct. 19, from 2:00 until 8 o'clock in the school.

There will be a large variety of booths. Repeaters from last year include, the Country Store and White Elephant Sale. The Cake Walk game, so popular last year will also be a repeat. There will be a make-up booth for the "tiny grown-ups" and fish pond and other grab bag booths to satisfy the reckless at heart.

Refreshments will be provided by the refreshment stand. There will be provisions for a light meal at a reasonable cost. Let your whole family, children too, enjoy a meal out without denting the family exchequer too badly.

A new comer on the program this year is the Talent Show. All participants are young people in the Summit Hill School District. Much time and effort have been put into this production by Mrs. Albert Behnke with the able assistance of Mrs. Foster Tekotte and Mrs. Cullison.

There will be three performances of the Talent show. They will be on the quarter four instead of the hour, as was previously announced; 3:15 - 5:15 and 7:15 p.m. The show will last approximately thirty minutes. There will be two entirely different shows, while the third show will be a composite of the other two.

Each show will consist of eight acts. The first show will have: Janet Karkos & Jill Neumayer - a singing duo; Peggy Sparks & Pam Sandman & Francine Mangano, a singing trio; Larry Lawson - accordion; Linda Weber & Doug Lerch - song and dance; Diane Veltman, Stephanie May, Linda Scott, Janet Rochelle & Patricia Nyder - song & dance; Blake Tekotte, Al Behnke & Darrel May - guitar and singing duo; Susan Kilgore - Hawaiian dance; and Claudia Cullison & Kathleen Keto - magic.

The second show will have: Doug Lerch - singing; Pam Sandman - pantomime; Ken Lillie & Joe Areuri - singing novelty act; Donna Kenard - chord organ; Ken Lillie, Ricky Homer, Stan Pasky, Joe Arcuri & Ben Weber - dance; Cheryl Turner - singing; Jim Carlson, Ricky Sandy, Al Behnke & Darrel May - pantomime; 20 of the Junior Girl Scouts will sing under the direction of Mrs. Cullison, their leader.

The costumes used in the show have been made up by the efforts of the young people themselves. The Summit Hill Parent-Teacher Group held their regular monthly meeting at the school on last Thursday, Oct. 10. The speech correction teacher, Mrs. Wilma Jean Wegler gave an informative talk on speech correction.

At the meeting also Mr. Reeves, the eighth grade and art teacher, announced the winners of the poster contest, which had as its subject the Fun Fair. The winners were: Nancy Langfried first prize; and Janice Maschmeyer, second prize.

There was a budget presented and approved for the running of the organization for this year. In addition, it was decided to establish a $50 scholarship fund to be presented annually to a graduate of the Summit Hill school to be used toward a college education.

The unseasonably warm weather has enabled the school classes to have several field trips during the past two weeks. Mrs. Gilbert's fifth grade class visited three farms in the area.

The third grade class also visited the same week, while the second grade class took a science field trip to the Mokena Community Park to study leaves and plants. The kindergarten class were also treated to a field trip to a local farm.

The Bingo club had their October meeting at the new home of Mrs. Jean Wilson, formerly of Arbary Hills and now of New Lenox. The Wilsons moved from Arbary Hills over the last week-end in September; and the meeting was held on October 8. Most of the members of the group were able to attend; and Mrs. Wilson had also invited one guest of her own.

The hostesses prize was won by Mrs. Elinor Scott, and the next meeting is scheduled for Nov. 12 at the home of Mrs. Carol Karp of 9401 West Birch ave.

The Teens club is on the lookout for adult supervisors for their meetings which take place on the first and third Monday of the month. If anyone in the school district has some time to devote to these young people on Monday evening, they are asked to call Harold Fitch, the director, at 479-5451.

Thw women of St. Mary's parish spent a pleasant afternoon attending the annual Nun's Show at the Social Hall on Sunday afternoon, Oct. 6.

David and Mary Mundt of 19537 South Beechnut Drive became the parents of their second child, and first daughter, at Silver Cross hospital, Joliet, on Thursday, Oct. 3. They have a son Donald, 2.

The new member of the Mundt family was named Janet Catherine and weighed seven pounds four ounces at birth. Little Miss Mundt had a last minute change of name, when she was born on her great-grandmother Catherine Meade's eighty-seventh birthday. Janet Catherine was to have been named Janet Marie, but the name was changed in honor of her great-grandmother who lives at Iowa City.

The Summit Hill Boy Scout Troop Number 10 held a weenie roast in Van Horne Woods in place of their pot luck supper this year. Awards of merit were given to the boys.

A bonfire was provided and the hot dogs cooked. This was followed by camp fire singing. The boys are scheduled to have their monthly camp out at Camp Rainbow at Morris, Ill. The camp out is to take place over the last week-end in October.

The newly organized Explorer troop will hold meetings at the scout house, one and one-half miles east of Rt. 45 on 191st street. The meetings are to start at 7:30 p.m.

Pleads Guilty
To Falsifying
Tax Exemptions

(CNS) Casimir John Wozniak, 40 years old, 8100 West 107th street, Palos Hills, pleaded guilty Friday to charges of willfully supplying false information to his employer concerning his income tax withholding exemptions. U. S. District Judge Joseph Sam Perry ordered a pre-sentence investigation and set the matter for disposition on Nov. 15.

Wozniak, a loading dock foreman for the Midwest Freight Forwarding company and unmarried, allegedly claimed four exemptions instead of one.

He is the first Chicago area resident to be charged with this violation as part of a new drive by the Internal revenue service. He faces up to $500 fine and one year in prison.

Lincoln Memorial Library At L-W Was Student's Idea

Five years ago, Barbara Walsh, a Lincoln-Way high school student conceived the idea for a library in memory of Abraham Lincoln. Since then the Lincoln library has grown to well over one hundred volumes and mementoes of the great emancipator.

Nearly half of the books in this collection have been placed there by donors in memory of friends or relatives. Anyone interested in adding to the collection may do so by contacting Miss Dorothy Wells, Lincoln-Way librarian.

Part of the new additions being built onto Lincoln-Way high school includes a new library specially planned to provide a dual-purpose room to house the collection. This room will also serve as a small conference room for students and faculty.

A complete list of books donated to date is as follows: The Lincoln Nobody Knows, The Enduring Lincoln, Prelude to Greatness, A Picture Story of Abraham Lincoln, Lincoln as a Lawyer, Lincoln, a Picture, History of His Life, Ordeal of the Union - Vol. I & II, Abraham Lincoln, a Biography, Lincoln Day by Day (3 Vols.), The Web of Conspiracy, Abraham Lincoln, Mr. Lincoln's Washington, Stanton, Lincoln and the Emperors, Lincoln's Imagery, The Great Proclamation, O. E.: Historian Without, an Armchair, Lincoln: a Contemporary and Lincoln and the Negro.

Mr. Lincoln's Army, Citizen of New Salem, The Emergence of Lincoln, V.I. Mary Lincoln, Wife and Widow, Lincoln in Caricature, My Cousin Abe, Lincoln's Boyhood, Abraham Lincoln Goes to N.Y., Abraham Lincoln: a New Portrait, Lincoln's Journey to Greatness, Crisis of the House Divided, The Almost Chosen People, A. Lincoln: Prairie Lawyer, Conversation with Lincoln, Largely Lincoln and Meet General Grant.

Perfect Tribute, The Military Genius of Abraham Lincoln, Lincoln and the Civil War, Lincoln's Education, Lincoln's Manager, David Davis, Lincoln for the Ages, I, Mary, Lincoln Finds a General 5 Vols. and "Abe" Lincoln's Yarns and other Stories.

Collect White

Uniforms For Project HOPE

The collecting of used white uniforms in all sizes, such as beautician, waitress, nurse, and surgical uniforms, is one of a series of efforts which will be sponsored this year by the Orland Park Junior Woman's Club for the benefit of Project HOPE, principal activity of the People-to-People Foundation, Inc. Last year the club made toys which were dispatched to the white hospital ship, S.S. HOPE, anchored off the northwestern coast of Peru. They arrived in time to be distributed in the children's ward at Christmas.

Anyone who might have used uniforms which they would like to contribute to this project, or anyone who might be connected with a hospital or clinic which the club could contact, may call Mrs. Dorothy Embry, public health chairman of the Orland Park Juniors, at FI 9-7857; or, the uniforms may be given to any club member of brought to the next club meeting on Wednesday (Oct. 23) at the Orland Park fire house.

A CLASS of the kindergarten pupils in the Orland Park system. There are 94 enrolled in the kindergarten which is taught at Maue school. There are two teachers and the one in this picture is Miss Dorothea Long.

Maue School Serves As Kindergarten Center

Pictured are some of the kindergarten students from Orland Park at the Maue school located at 179th Street and 108th Avenue. In the background on the building are figures of nursery rhyme characters. These figures are the work of Martha Fish, daughter of Mrs. Barbara Fish, art teacher in the Orland schools.

The location of the school - in a farmland setting - lends itself well for kindergarten training. The Maue building contains three rooms - two are being used as classrooms and one large room at the lower level serves as a play area. In good weather, however, the children enjoy the entire school grounds and play equipment. Two teachers, Miss Dorothea

Long and Mrs. Helen Nystrom, are able to keep in close contact with the central office at the Orland Park School by means of a telephone intercom system. In this way, assistance is immediately available in the event of an accident or illness.

Superintendent Jerling pointed out that the presence of the custodian, Laurence Uthe, helps in the maintenance of a safe and clean building. Regular visits are made to the building by the school nurse, Mrs. Dorothy Sikula, and James Callahan, principal of the Orland Center and Maue buildings, spends time daily at the kindergarten building. There are 94 kindergartners at Maue at the present time.

Firemen Conduct Drills At Orland Grade Schools

Last Friday in Fire Prevention Week, three firemen from the Orland Park fire department - Jerry Eckert, Ed Maroney, and Joe McNamara - conducted surprise fire drills at the Orland Park and Orland Center schools.

The department indicated the drills were satisfactory with a maximum time of one minute and fifteen seconds required to leave the building. There was a minimum amount of confusion among the classes as they left the building, thereby assuring the safety of the youngsters.

At the request of the school administration, the firemen inspected all fire extinguishers in the buildings and arrangements are being made for replacement or recharging of the extinguishers as necessary to maintain the constant protection of the students.

The cooperation of the fire department and the schools is vital in the matter of safety and protection of the school children. Supt. Norbert Jerling wishes to publicly thank the Orland Park firemen for their cooperation and interest.

Sandburg Music Students To Sell Candy On Sunday

Music department students and Music Parents of the Carl Sandburg high school will begin their annual door-to-door candy bar sale on Sunday, Oct. 20 at 1 p.m. The familiar "World's Finest" chocolate bar with toasted almonds and one pound boxes of chocolate covered almonds will be sold.

The Music Parents Association of the school sponsor the fund drive and the proceeds are used to purchase musical instruments, uniforms and other items necessary for the music department.

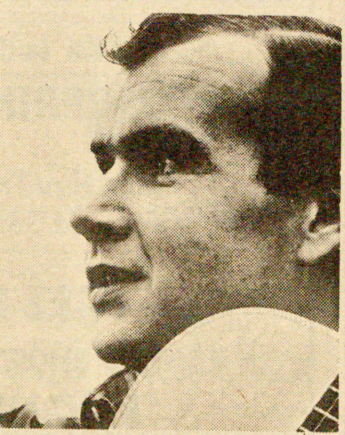

Heading this year's drive is Mrs. Norman McNeil, Assistant her are Mrs. William Lilly, Mrs. Edgar Baldwin, Mrs. Robert C. Petersen, Mrs. Charles J. Schroeder, Jr., Mrs. Merrill Cooper, Mrs. Richard Yang, Mrs. Robert Fisher, and Mr. and Mrs. William Goldinger.

Members of the Music Parents Association will assist in the distribution of the chocolate bars and will also drive the students to the areas assigned to them.

May Change Procedures In N.L. Sewer Accounts

October's meeting of the New Lenox village board heard a report by the accounting firm of Grumley and Co., on the status of the accounts of the sewer department. The firm has just completed the annual audit of sewer department books.

Altho everything was found to be in order, the auditors recommend certain changes in procedure to attain more efficient handling of funds and to expedite the work of the auditor.

Trustees Evans Drotts, Don Anderson, and Wilbur Thackrey and Village Treasurer James Hearn were appointed as a committee to consider the recommendations of the auditor and suggest changes in procedure that might be necessary. The operation of the sewer department is reported quite satisfactory. Originally budgeted to pay out on 500 users and an annual gross income of $30,000, the system now has more than 600 users and an annual gross income of more than $40,000 it was stated.

Robert McCleary, village clerk, reported that property liens were ready for filing against 26 property owners who were delinquent in payment of sewer charges. The original list included 31 names, but five paid up.

The village board is considering a proposition to hire an engineer to prepare a comprehensive plan for parks and recreational areas for the community. It was thought that some planning could work areas such as the Methodist Camp Ground, the Lions Club Recreational Area, and the surplus land at the sewage plant site into an over-all park scheme for the community. Federal funds are said to be available for such a study.

Orland Schools
To Have Band:
Hire Director

The Orland schools' new band director, Wesley Warner, met with a large group of enthusiastic band parents in the school gymnasium to introduce them to the newly expanded band program. A display of instruments was set up for the parents.

Over one hundred students thus far have started band instruction at the school. Group lessons will be given during the school day, which should eliminate the problem of special transportation for the children. Orland Center students will be transported to and from the Orland Park Building three days a week for a full band rehearsal.

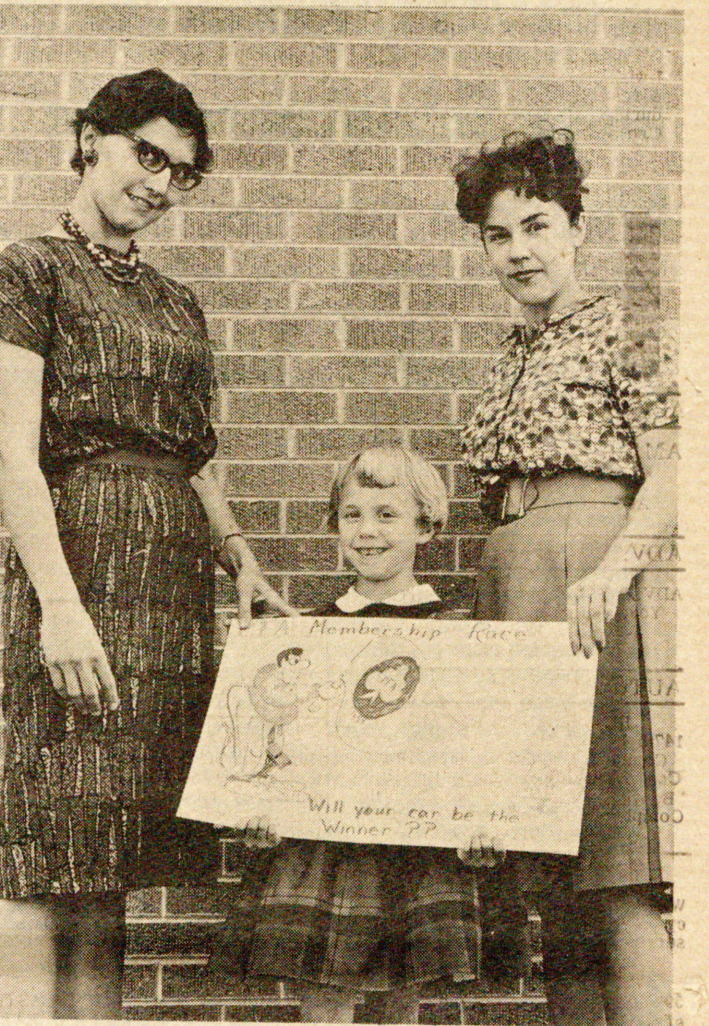

Mr. Warner indicates his goal is to make the band an educational experience as well as a performing group of which the school and community will be proud.

MR. AND MRS. BURNETT W. SCHRAM, 20 Hickory st., Frankfort, will observe their 25th wedding anniversary with an "open house" Oct. 20 from 2 to 4 p.m. and from 7 to 9 p.m. The open house will be held at St. Peter's United Church of Christ in Frankfort. All relatives and friends are invited to attend. The Schrams were married on Oct. 23, 1938 in the same church.

Schram has been in the barber business for the past 27 years; 25 of which has been in Frankfort. He has been Frankfort Township Collector for the past 14 years.

Assisting them in marking their silver anniversary will be their daughter Kay and three sons Alan, Arlan and Keith.

"You're in the Driver's Seat" is the theme of this year's Membership Drive for the Mokena PTA. Each room in both Willow Crest and Carpenter Street schools features a sign complete with moveable toy cars as shown here by Janice Barenz and her first grade teacher, Mrs. Elaine Grant. Standing by, at left, is Janice's mother, Mrs. Willard Barenz, who is co-chairman of the membership drive with Mrs. Walter Shewski (not shown).

Re elect Directors Of Licoln-Way S-L Assoc.

The second annual meeting of the Association of Lincoln-Way, S&L was held at the association's office and re-elected to the board of directors were Lloyd Berlin, president and chairman of the board, G. Merrill Cooper, C.L. Klasing Jr., vice president, Stuart Kroesch, secretary, Earl Moss, Don Nepote, exec. vice president, John Oster, treasurer, Dr. Claude W. Otto, and Donald F. Wennlund.

Mr. Nepote stated that the assets of the Association totaled $2,402,901.70 as of July 31, 1963, an increase of $1,347,810.63 over last year. Net savings gains recorded during the fiscal year totaled $1,212,956.23 bringing total savings held by the Association of $1,954,315.42, a record increase in financial institutions relative to size in the Will county area.

All savings at Lincoln-Way Savings are insured to $10,000 by an agency of the United States government. He also reported that the Association mortgage loan portfolio (based on sound lending principles) rose to a high of $2,114,373.82. He expressed the heartfelt thanks on behalf of the board of directors and staff for the confidence and support given to the Association by the people of the Lincoln-Way Joliet area.

AUXILIARY POLICE
The Will county auxiliary police will hold their next meeting Sunday, Oct. 20 at 7 p.m. in the supervisors room of the Will county court house. The speaker will be Thomas Cavanaugh, juvenile director.

YMCA PROGRAM
The Southwest YMCA is to conduct a program at the Orland Park grade school, 143rd st., Tuesday night, Oct. 22 at 7:30 p.m. Boys between 6 and 8 years of age and their fathers are invited. It is billed as an "Indian guide pow-wow".

5-In Memoriam

IN MEMORIAM
In loving memory of my husband,
Arthur G. Lauffer, who passed away
October 16, 1954.

Loving wife,
Baudry, Billy - In loving memory of our beloved son, brother & uncle who passed away October 19, 1957.
When autumn leaves are falling
That's when we feel the saddest
To us it will always seem like yesterday
That God came and in his kindness took you away.
Your Loving Family

8-Card of Thanks

Make way for the rip-snortin'est, sportin'est Comet ever built—the hot new Comet Caliente

There's new wham in Comet's styling... new scam in its engines—up to a special high-performance 289 cu. in. V-8—now in action in the Comet Durability Run!

BULLETIN—Daytona Beach, Fla.

On October 11, the lead car in the 1964 Comet Durability Run completed 50,000 miles at speeds well over 100 mph. This Comet—specially equipped and prepared for high-speed track driving —was still going strong as this went to press. The same skills and engineering excellence that are helping to make Comet's Daytona performance possible go into every '64 Comet. This is a surprisingly hot new kind of Comet... engineered with the most responsive engines in its field.

Elegance in a compact-price car
The '64 Comet is newly styled—bigger, bolder looking—with elegance usually found only in leading luxury cars. Example: the top-series Caliente features interiors with walnut-like paneling.

Every bit as hot as it looks

The '64 Comet is newly designed... with a new wider, road-gripping stance... big-car ride and comfort. A hot new lineup of luxury options includes power steering, power brakes. See the '64 Comets at your Mercury dealer's now.

The county board of school trustees of Will County will conduct a sale of the Weitendorf site and building Oct. 26 at 10 a.m. due to the merging of the Weitendorf School District with Mokena and Frankfort School Districts.

The successful bidder must deposit 10 per cent of the purchase price.

The site and building must be sold separately, because the school was built on two different tracts of land. The building must be razed or moved within 60 days after purchase.

The site to be sold is 256 feet square, which occupies the corner and is the original site. An L-shaped piece was added to the site by the Weitendorf family, with provisions that when no longer used for school purposes it was to revert to the owners of the farm.

The proceeds of the sale will be shared by the Mokena and Frankfort school districts according to their daily average attendance last year.

Members of the local fire department visited Carpenter, Willow Crest and St. Mary's schools, where they enacted a fire demonstration using various types of equipment in observance of National Fire Protection Week. Each school also held a fire drill.

In connection with Fire Prevention Week, Chief Robert Rust made a taped recorded message which was heard over radio station WJOL.

The next training night will be Nov. 2.

The annual community Halloween parade sponsored by the Amvet Post Auxiliary will be held Oct. 31 at 6:30 p.m. The parade for pre-schoolers to eighth grade, will form at the Carpenter Street school with the Lincoln-Way high school band leading the line of march.

As this is a community project, the fire department will donate use of the firehouse for judging of costumes and awarding of silver dollars, given by the Amvet Auxiliary. Candy is donated by the Chamber of Commerce and cracker-jack by Amvet Post #183 to give to children attending the parade.

He served as test center foreman in Illinois Bell's Franklin district, which serves the heart of Chicago's loop.

He and his wife, Carmen, plan to retire to Bradenton, Fla.

Clark Will Run Again

Attorney General William G. Clark has officially announced his candidacy for renomination and re-election as attorney general of Illinois.

Clark, a Chicago Democrat, tossed his hat into the ring at a meeting of his staff members held in Abraham Lincoln hotel at Springfield. He will put his record on the line at the election in 1964.

"I am seeking renomination and re-election on the record I have established during my first term as attorney general," Clark said. "I am seeking a second term in office in order to carry out fully my legislative program in the field of consumer fraud, charitable trusts and charitable solicitations which are the first direct benefits inuring directly to each citizen that have ever been administered by the Attorney General. These programs have been started and started well. I wish to complete them."

Clark prior to his election as attorney general in 1960 served as attorney for the public administrator of Cook county by appointment of Gov. Adlai Stevenson; as a member of the Illinois house of representatives for three terms, and as a member of the Illinois senate for one term. During his last term in the house he served as majority leader.
